PLANS FOR THE WINTER.

EXTENSION COURSE-OTHER NEWS

OF INTEREST. Miss Mary Marshall Butler and Miss Florence J. Parsons, president and superintendent, respectively, of the Woman's Institute, have been busily engaged in the last two weeks in planning the work for the winter. Affairs have been put in shape and a meeting of the Woman's Institute Club for Self Supporting Women has been called for Thursday ning, when the schedule of the several classes be announced. The classes which will be conducted this winter are cookery, sewing, dressmaking, millinery, fancy work, physical training, writing and literature. A special feature will be made of the class in domestic science, which will be conducted by Miss Parsons. In connection with it there will be a kitchen-garden class for children. The class in callsthenics, which becomes mere pop-ular each year, will be in charge of Miss Lillian B. Clark, of New-York City. This class always has a large membership. The class in dressmaking will be under the supervision of Miss A. V. W. Schenck, of the Teachers' College of New-York City. As has been the custom for some years, a number of lectures will be given in the winter for the public as well as for the members of the institute, admission to which will be reasonable. Two of these lectures have been arranged for. The first will be on the evening of October 15, when Miss Boyeson, a sister late Professor Boyeson, will give an illustrated talk on "Norway and the Norwegians." On the evening of October 27 Miss Proctor, a daughter of the late Professor Proctor, the astronomer, will lecture on "Other Worlds Than Ours." The course of lectures in the University Extension department this year will be upon "Modern European Litera-ture from the Year 1815." The date for the opening of the course has not yet been decided upon, nor is the Board of Managers ready to announce the lecturers. Those who attend will, however, have the pleasure of listening to a number of good men, as the literature of the different countries will be explained by different lecturers. The library, assist students in the course, has arrived and is at the institute, but the syllabus has not been issued. The Civic League will retain the library for the winter. The two Frenchmen and the dancing bear, the aggregation which created some excitement in New-York a few days ago, were brought to police head-quarters yesterday forenoon by Policeman Carroll. The policeman found them in Lamartine-ave., near Warburton-ave., giving an exhibition. Quite a crowd followed them to the station-house, and the sergeant at the desk looked up from his work and gained out the window to see what the commotion meant. As soon as he saw the bear coming he gave orders for broin to he left outside in charge of one of the men, while Policeman Carroll brought the other feilow in. The sergeant said that he did not want a repetition of what had occurred at Kingsbridge on the day previous. He gave one of the men a lecture and ordered both out of the city at once. The hear had an unpleasant experience in Ravine-ave. In the foremon, After the beast had gone through a number of tricks one of the men said that for an extra quarter of a dollar he would have the bear climb a tree. The money was soon forthcoming, and bruin climbed in good fashlor. It was a maple tree, and the branches were close together. After resting awhile the bear tried to come down, but the rope attached to the muzzle was caught in the branches, and he could give no assistance. The bear worked for fully fiften minutes before he finally extricated himself.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO THE RESIDENTS OF RICHMOND COUNTY.

A prediction that the County Fair would prove a financial success is confirmed by the statements of Frederick W. Janssen, who says that the receipt and profits exceeded those of last year. Mr. Janssa says that no public statement will be made of the profits, the enterprise being a private one. He admits vious year's standard, and asserts that it was due to the lethargy of the exhibitors, who took no interes in the show. This feature, he says, will probably b dropped rather than encouraged, and next year, in all probability, the company will give a horse show only.
